Sponsor a mile for Childhood Cancer
ONE MORE TIME

JOIN US in support of Tom Mitchell, founder and President of Stillbrave Childhood Cancer Foundation as he attempts to run his longest race to date - the Moab 240 mile Endurance Race - through the mountains, canyons and deserts of Utah. Tom will be running this race in honor of children who are battling cancer or have lost their lives to this deadly disease.

SPONSOR A MILE

Raise funds within your network to support Stillbrave or sponsor Stillbrave outright.

CREATE A TEAM

Ask others in your network to assist you in your efforts to help Stillbrave.

CREATE A COMPANY TEAM

If you own a business, start a team to compete with other businesses to help Stillbrave, while creating a unique team building experience.

GET OTHERS TO JOIN YOU!

Get your friends to sponsor their own mile, or get your company to create a company team, or even get your corporation to match every donation you receive.

RAISE AWARENESS for Childhood Cancer and help Stillbrave, a grassroots foundation, help more children as they undergo the emotional and physical stresses of cancer treatments and the financial toll it can take on their families. Stillbrave is a non-profit 501(c)3 organization that provides non-medical support to children undergoing cancer treatment.

Stillbrave directly impacts the lives of families that are struggling with their child's battle with cancer by providing them with support care services, both emotional and financial.
